Counsel,

Your inquiry should appropriately have been raised in an interrogatory. That said, in the interest of efficiency, and with the expectation that Plaintiffs will respond to any similar requests that Google may have, Google responds as follows: With respect to Google's counterclaims against Match, Google stands by the allegations in its counterclaim. However, consistent with the expert report of Dr. Leonard, and without waiver, Google presently does not intend to seek damages for Match's breach of contract for any period before October 1, 2021. To be clear, this damages limitation does not extend to any other Google counterclaim against Match, including its Breach of Implied Covenant of Good Faith and Fair Dealing and False Promise claims.

Thanks,
Minna

Counsel:

We are writing to seek clarity on Google's counterclaims in advance of the upcoming dispositive motion deadline. We understand that Google is not asserting any damages for any of its counterclaims against the Match Plaintiffs for any period before October 2021. See Opening Expert Report of Dr. Gregory K. Leonard ¶ 37 ("I have not been asked to calculate damages for any breach by Match Group prior to that date [October 1, 2021].").

Please confirm that Google's counterclaims are limited to the period of time after October 1, 2021. In particular, please confirm that Google is not asserting that the Match Plaintiffs breached the DDA before October 1, 2021.

Please respond by Monday, April 10. If you would like to discuss before then, we are available.

Thank you,

Tate
